To be held at - Cambridge Health & Community Centre

22 A Taylor Street Cambridge

Times – 9.30am to 4.00pm Saturday & 9.30am to 3.00pm Sunday

I'm not sure where the years go but its Lace Trails again in September. We have planned a special lunch on Saturday but you will have to come along to find out what it is.

This year we have Yvette Slabbert teaching Bucks Point Lace. A lot of you have expressed an interest in learning this type of lace. Yvette has put a lot of time into her preparation for this class and it is going to be fantastic. The class is aimed at beginners but I feel even those with some experience will get something out of this class. There are limited places so don't delay sending in your registrations. Refer to the attachment from Yvette regarding the class.

As usual we will be providing lunch and morning teas FREE of charge both days. There is no extra cost for this.

Raffles will be held on both days so start saving your loose change.

There will be traders as usual on Saturday only. If you have anything you wish to sell please bring the item along with a price on it. It's always fun to buy things you don't necessarily NEED but want. One man's rubbish can be another man's treasure.

The Challenge for 2017 is make a piece of lace depicting a cone shape. Bring along what you have come up with we would love to see it and you may earn a prize.

Attached is the Registration Form this needs to be completed and returned with payment to Robyn Denny 52 Carter Drive Rotorua or dmdd@xtra.co.nz by Friday 25th August 2017. Your Class Requirements will be sent to you on receipt of your enrolment.

We are looking forward to seeing you at Lace Trails 2017 SO PLEASE GET YOUR ENROLMENTS INTO US ASAP.

This year we would like everyone who registers to bring along a favourite recipe it can be cakes, slices, biscuits, entrées, main courses, desserts. If you would like to give us more than one recipe we would love to have them. If you are unable to attend please feel free to email your recipe/recipes to Julie – TODDbjmkh@xtra.co.nz
